

Media Advisory: CSN Celebrates Black History Month

February 11, 2019 – This month, the College of Southern Nevada has a host of Black History Month events and celebrations scheduled.

CSN is Nevada’s largest and most diverse higher education institution and the college holds diversity and inclusion events throughout the year.

Events this month not only help the college’s black students learn about and connect with their own heritage, they allow the entire student body to learn about some of American history’s most important figures.

Some of the events scheduled are:

- Black History Film Series:
 - “Hidden Figures,” February 11
 - “Selma,” February 13,
 - “The Great Debaters,” February 14
 - “The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks,” February 19
- Stories from the Motherland, February 12
- Southern Jazz Brunch, February 19
- 70's Day & Black Jeopardy trivia game, February 20

For a full list of diversity events and celebrations this month, please visit www.csn.edu/diversity.

About CSN: Founded in 1971, the College of Southern Nevada is the state’s largest and most ethnically diverse higher education institution. CSN is accredited through the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities and specializes in two-year degrees and workforce development that lead directly to high-demand careers or transfer to a university. It also offers seven bachelor’s degrees in specialized fields and is the state’s largest provider of adult basic education and literacy training. CSN is a Minority Serving Institution and Nevada’s first Hispanic Serving Institution. Our students create flexible schedules with day, evening and weekend classes taught on three main campuses and multiple locations throughout Southern Nevada or online. CSN is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action institution.