Constituent Concerns

John Woodbury

Dependent Grant in Aid – A constituent came to John W after reading an article in the Sunday R.J. She stated that the article was about someone who had left UNLV and one of their accomplishments was getting GIA for Classified dependents. John W searched the RJ site and could not find the article. Constituent did not have a copy of the article because they sent it to HR. Constituent received a call from John Scarborough who allegedly, informed constituent that UNLV were getting GIA because they have a bigger budget. Constituent called to ask for the article back, was told it was thrown out. John W and Sarah brought up to Asha Jones, Director of Government Affairs and she said she would look into it.
