

Reading Discussion Group for ESL Students and anyone interested in Cross-Cultural Book Discussions
Spring, 2018

- Read five pages per day at home and discuss the reading every two weeks
- Foster a love of reading
- Discuss cultural topics and express opinions
- Meet like-minded people who enjoy reading and discussing books
- Narrow the gap between ESL and native speaker reading levels
- Become comfortable discussing books and using a broader range of vocabulary in conversation
- Learn appropriate vocabulary and new expressions for academic reading, writing and speaking
- Improve reading fluency and speed
- Prepare for reading in academic classes and the Nursing entrance exam

Schedule for Meetings in C-277

Thursdays from 2:00—3:15

1/25: Information Meeting

2/15: Discuss chapters 1—12

3/1: Discuss chapters 13—23

3/22: Discuss chapters 24—35

4/5: Discuss chapters 36—48

4/19: Discuss chapters 49—end

Contact Amy Litman to purchase a book, or buy one online or in a Barnes and Noble Bookstore. You may also try public libraries, but there is often a wait.

Contact Amy Litman for more information: amy.litman@csn.edu
702-651-7576